

Prosper Sports Association Parents Code of Ethics/Conduct

Children have more need for example than for criticism.

Remember, your child is involved in organized sports for their enjoyment, NOT YOURS.

Attempt to relieve the pressure of the competition, not increase it.

Be kind to your child's coach and officials. The coach is a volunteer, giving of personal time and money to provide a recreational activity for your child.

The opponents are necessary friends. Without them your child could not participate.

Applaud good plays by your team AND by members of the opposing team.

Do not openly question an official's judgment and honesty. Officials are symbols of fair play, integrity, and sportsmanship.

Accept the results of each game. Encourage your child to be gracious in victory and to turn defeat into victory by working towards improvement.

Teach your child that honest effort is as important as victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
